

We must not let the communications of radio be owned by just few powerful people who will only end up using it for their own greedy purposes. We must preserve our democracy.